

KINDI KIDS LOVE TO STEP

Place coloured paper plates in a row (pink, blue, pink, blue) and have the children step on just one colour. Put one colour of plates far apart for big steps, another colour close together for tiny steps, one colour could make a bendy path and another could make a circle. The options are limitless and encourage fun physical activity.

